‘TOWN HALL’ MEETINGS SET TO TALK ABOUT ROADS

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. – Macomb County Commissioner Keith Rengert invites residents in the northern part of the county to attend “town hall” meetings that will address concerns about township roads, especially gravel or dirt roads.

“We want to hear any complaints that people have about roads and explain who is responsible for township roads, road funding and what to expect in future road enhancements,” Rengert said.

Besides Rengert, representatives of the Macomb County Road Commission – a government entity that is separate from the Board of Commissioners – along with officials from local township governments.

The meetings are scheduled for:

- 7 p.m. Monday, April 4, at the Richmond Township Hall, 34900 School Section Road near Memphis Ridge Road
- 7 p.m. Thursday, April 7, at the Ray Township Hall, 64255 Wolcott Road
- 7 p.m. Tuesday, April 12, at the Armada Township Hall, 23121 E. Main St.

Rengert, R-Richmond, represents Board of Commissioners District 15, which includes Ray, Armada, Richmond and northern Macomb townships, the village of Armada and the city of Memphis.

“While the focus of these meetings will be gravel roads, we invite any resident with road concerns to attend any of the locations,” Rengert said.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state’s fastest rates of growth. Its 825,000 residents make it Michigan’s third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan’s second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
